

All Saints

Mission

Find a saint who inspires you. See if you can discover a saint who you have things in common with.

Remember that the saints aren't just role models from history, they are alive in heaven, they are praying for you and you can call upon your saint for help in the same way you would any other friend.